USE Vegetable Sicilian HALL'S HAIR RENEWER.

It is a medicinal preparation, and, at the same time, a hair restorer. It is a tonic and astringent. Its action upon the scalp is wonderful. It nourishes the glands which support the hair, and causes thin, dry hair to become thick, soft, and vigorous. It restores the color of youth to locks which have become faded with age or disease; and relieves and cures itching, caused by humors of the scalp. Dr. George Gray, Nashua, N. H., writes: "It gives me pleasure to testify to the wonderful effects of Hall's Hair Renewer. I have used it for many years, and am satisfied with its results. As observed by me in very many cases, IT WILL CERTAINLY RESTORE THE HAIR TO ANY ORIGINAL COLOR. It cleanses the head of dandruff, and leaves the hair soft, glossy, and beautiful!" F. T. Sandelin, 1010 Spruce st., Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "After unavailingly trying a number of preparations to prevent my hair from falling out, and realizing that I must do something, I tried, as a last resource, Hall's Hair Renewer, and am perfectly satisfied that it is the best preparation in the market for checking the falling out of hair, invigorating the hair roots, and promoting a new growth."

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,

Proprietors.

THURSDAY EVE., DEC. 23, 1886.

The bill increasing the duty on Sumatra tobacco has been defeated in the House of Representatives.

The United States Court at Covington has ordered the sale of the Cincinnati and Southeastern Railroad, to satisfy a mortgage held by the Union Trust Company, of New York.

MISS MATTIE Todd has been re-elected postmistress at Cynthiana, and there's likely to follow some big kicking on the part of the defeated. Miss Todd has held the place for eight years.

There is no let-up in the pension schemes, and if Congress will only listen to such measures the surplus will soon disappear. Better pay it out to the soldiers, though, than let it lie idle in the treasury vaults.

The assessment of property in Jefferson County under the Hewitt Revenue bill shows the remarkable increase of $20,000,000 over that of last year. Here's $20,000,000 of property in one county alone that has been escaping taxation, for years no doubt. The principal opposition to the new law comes from the tax-dodgers, mainly.

Stock and Crops.

B. J. Tracy, of Lexington, has recently refused an offer of $18,000 for Bermuda and $3,000 for Potted.

George M. Clay, of Bourbon, has sold to E. Corrigan a sister of Modesty for $4,000.

Srother Goff, of Clark County, has recently sold fifty acres, averaging 1,772 pounds, at 4 cents.

R. C. Salter, of Boyle County, has sold to Israel Brown, of Cincinnati, four Christmas beesees that averaged 1,908 pounds, at 6 cents.

Among the racers sold at Lexington last week were the following: Blue Wing to S. S. Brown, of Pittsburg, for $7,000; Bourbon to R. Tucker, New York, for $3,000; Pure Bye to D. T. Pulsifer, Chicago, $2,500; Montrose to A. S. Nabdol, Cincinnati, $4,100; Duke of Bourbon, S. S. Brown, $6,650.

New Ideas in Jewelry.

[Jeweler's Weekly.] Among new flower-pins is the pony tail, with diamond center.

In plated ware the bright-cut satin finish is still the most popular style.

Circles of small opals, each surrounding a large pearl, make pretty ear-rings.

The newest bottles for aromatic salts are made of antique silver, chased in Brussels designs.

For pendants on Queen chains, faceted cubes, cigarette-girdles, knots and odd shapes seem to be the favorites still.

Bug and fly pins appear to be increasing in size, the oval in great requisition for the back of the blouse.

Cats' heads, made of small diamonds and placed on a spiral wire, are among the new ornaments used for the hair.

The soft will-o'-the-wisp-like glow of the fairy lamp gives a beautiful effect in the drawing-room, or conservatory.

A rare new bracelet is a single narrow band of gold set with a topaz over a half inch wide and an inch long, with diamonds on each side.

Opals are now used with good effect in combination with rubies or diamonds, in the popular lines of flower-pins in Roman or marred finish.

Egyptian ear-rings, made of enameled gold and the like, and ropes, are also very much in this fall. They are generally enameled in blue and garnet.

The spinel seems to be in part usurping the place hitherto occupied by the ruby as a companion gem, and in brilliancy is little inferior to its more costly rival.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

Fool fat hogs are selling $4.00 per cwt. In fact, the market is very dull, and the price $4.00 per cwt. No sale to report of the new $5.00 per cwt. The buyers have not been skirmishing around yet.

Rev. Lancaster, of the M. E. Church, South, will be here on the 24th instant, and will speak at the place, the 27th instant, if no future disaster occurs. He will be at the hotel in the good work of the church, and will speak on the subject of "The Slave." Every one is cordially invited and a good meeting is anticipated.

Brutal Price Fight Stopped!

New York, Dec. 23.—Al Masters and Fatty Burke, of Newark, N. J., met in the old Salvation Army barracks on Madison Street, Island, not far from the station by Jack Dempsey early this morning to fight a battle for a purse of $100. The men were to fight at 11 pounds, skin-tight gloves, Queenbury rules. During the fifth round Capt. Cobb, with a posse of twenty-two others, burst in, the combatants were arrested. Bill was furnished for the principals. The battle was fought in the extreme, both men being given and received many painful blows. At the time of the fight the result was in doubt. Masters was the favorite in the betting.

Father and Child Assassinated.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Dec. 21.—General Estrada and his little daughter were walking in the suburbs of Concordia, when they were approached by Juan Arevalo, who, without warning, drew his pistol and killed the father and child to death. He then cut the telephone at the roadside and cut the wires to prevent his interception. He then fled toward the south, and has not been seen since.

The father lived long enough to tell the tale, however, and a former lover of the deceased man's wife.

No Mercy for the Millionaire Murderer.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 23.—The parole board in session at Harrisburg last night refused the application for the pardon of Milton Weston, charged with manslaughter in the famous Marysville bank robbery. It is the third time that he has applied for a parole, and he has no hope of success. He is a Chicago millionaire, and he will be compelled to serve out his sentence in the western penitentiary.

Colored People Boycotting Railroads.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 23.—The colored people of Florida, led by their ministers, have boycotted the railroads, because of the terrible way in which negroes are treated. Both male and female negroes are required to ride smoking cars, though paying the full fare, and are subjected to various insults. They will not travel by rail to camp meetings or anywhere else except in case of dire necessity.

A MEMORABLE DISASTER.

Sinking of the Shepherdess in 1844.

The recent burning of the elegant steamer, J. M. White, on the lower Mississippi, accompanied by such an appalling loss of life, has recalled many similar disasters that have occurred in the past. Some of our exchanges have referred to the sinking of the Shepherdess in 1844 within three miles of St. Louis, while enroute to that place from Cincinnati. The Shepherdess was in command of Captain A. P. Howell, of Covington, father of Mrs. H. C. Barkley, of this city, and the details of the terrible calamity, together with an account of the heroic conduct of Captain Howell and Robert Bullock, whom the latter was a citizen of this place, is given in the following, clipped from the Covington Commonwealth:

The Shepherdess was the property of Captain P. T. Thompson, of New Orleans, having her first trip under his ownership. Within sight of the city of St. Louis, in the winter of 1844, the boat struck a snag full of square logs. The vessel was suddenly, and with great violence, pierced and splintered, and the water rapidly rushed into the hold. It was 11 o'clock at night when the accident occurred, and in the darkness of a winter's night, with ice surging about her, the crew and passengers were thrown about, some being dashed overboard, others being crushed, while others were thrown wide open amidst the fragments. A scene was presented whose horrors, none who witnessed them, would ever desire to see reproduced.

The force of the current backed the boat against the snag, and she began to drop down in strength, and to settle lower and lower at the same time. Every effort was made to arouse the passengers and urge them to seek the hurricane deck. In this difficult and perilous task—for the boat was soon submerged, and a young man, it was learned, had lost his life in the attempt to save a woman—Captain Howell, a Pike street grocer, who was on his way to the West. He stood in the water to his armpits and passed up women and children to those on the hurricane deck until all were safe except himself. He was assisted by William Howell, the Captain's eldest son, who accompanied his father on the trip. This brave young man's life was spared at that time, but he has now lost his life in another cause. Your Editor has been assisting all the women and children to the roof, divested himself of his coat and wrapped them about those who were suffering most from cold, and being a bold and fearless swimmer, sprang into the dark water amid the ice and spray to the rescue of others.

It must be remembered that all this time the ice and water were crashing the boat to pieces. The cabin was torn away by the lurching of the wreck from side to side, many were crushed to death. After reaching the surface, Captain Howell found his coat torn, and had been brought to land in a shiff, and being overcome with cold, perished in lying down to sleep. He saved their lives by walking them about and pounding them with his hands.

His conduct at the time elicited the most extravagant admiration, but his gallantry was permitted to go unremarked, and about two years after the terrible catastrophe he quietly passed away.

Captain Howell, when last seen, was standing on the pier, looking across the front of the boat ringing his bell as a signal of danger and an appeal for help. And there the iron-crushed hero stood until a falling chimney crashed and annihilated and dashed him to the bottom of the water, and his body was never heard of more. In the blackness of darkness he stood, while the icy waves crushed his bone to pieces beneath his feet, true to his glorious manhood and faithful to his profession. His spirit, actuated alone by a sense of duty, stood magnificently at his post and died at last, heroic in the very element he had always loved.

Strange, strange, indeed it is, that Captain Howell should have been one of six brothers who found their deaths in the bosom of the same river, and in the long depths of raging seas, and yet such is the truth.

Captain Howell was the father of thirteen children, ten of whom and a loving wife were left to mourn his loss. His wife, born in 1816, at the age of 30, died in 1844, the year of the catastrophe; seven are yet alive. Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. James Gedge, Mrs. Martha C. Erce, Mr. C. P. Howell and Mr. George W. Howell are now residing in this city, and ranking among our best and most respected citizens.

Mr. FRED. L. FREDERICK, resident of Texas, and Mrs. C. H. B. are a resident of Mayville in this State. Every member of this remarkable family has attained an honorable station in life, though deprived of their father's name. The wife of Rev. Dr. S. H. Hayes, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and also principal of Hayeswood Seminary. For the past year she has had charge of the musical department of her father's school. She is one in whom the many lovely traits of womanhood are united and the groom is to be congratulated upon the prize he has won. The wedding was a quiet home affair, the relatives and a few intimate friends only of the parties being present. The father of the bride officiated. He was assisted by Rev. John Barber, a brother of the groom. The bridal party left on the steamer Bonanza at 11 o'clock for Cincinnati, and from there they will go to New York and other points of interest in the East.

He is a gentleman of the highest type of manhood, and is universally respected wherever known. The bride is the eldest daughter of Rev. John S. Hayes, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church and also principal of Hayeswood Seminary. For the past year she has had charge of the musical department of her father's school. She is one in whom the many lovely traits of womanhood are united and the groom is to be congratulated upon the prize he has won. Miss Nona B. Calhoun, of this city, and Mr. Charles F. Bahntje, of Joliet, Ill., were united in marriage at noon today at the residence of the bride's mother in the West End. No invitations had been sent out, and the news of the affair will, no doubt, be in the nature of a pleasant surprise to many of the bride's friends. But few outside of the relatives of the parties were present. Rev. J. Wood Pogue officiated, and spoke words that united the happy couple for weal or woe. The bridal party left on the afternoon train for Joliet, where the newlyweds will make their home in the East.

Anti-Rack Rent Agitation Increasing
Throughout Ireland—Reports of the Flight at Stanley Falls Confirmed—German
Affairs—Fall of Kasals—Notes.

DUBLIN, Dec. 23.—The anti-rack rent agitation is increasing throughout Ireland, despite the desperate efforts made by the Government to suppress it. The tenants of two large estates in the province of Ulster have demanded a 25 per cent reduction. The tenants of the Duke of Leinster, in County Kilkenny, again have notified their demand for a reduction in rent, asking now 30 instead of 25 per cent.

A Flight With Arms.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 23.—Capt. Coquillat, chief of the Borgia station in the Congo free state, who here is a visit, confirms the report that Lieut. Dubois was drowned in the Congo river while retreating from Stanley Falls. The captain says that Dubois was followed by the white Capt. Coquillat, attributed to a short supply of ammunition.

The captain reports that after the unsuccessful attempt of himself and a party to retake Stanley Falls from the Arab rebels who had driven an ambush fire by the Arabs along the river banks, he punished the Arabs severely at Zeppara. Capt. Coquillat does not believe that the capture of Stanley Falls is that of the Arab leader, Abd-el-Kader, of the Lower Congo, and says there is plenty of time to bar the passage of the Arabs should they attempt such a move and to retake the Falls station.

SENATORIAL BISTCUFF.

Capitol's State House the Scene of a Disgraceful Fight Between Senators.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 23.—The state house was the scene of a senatorial fistfight Monday night, the participants being Representatives of the same party, Mr. W. M. Murphy, of Barnesville, who was defeated for the legislature by the former on "wet" and "dry" issue. The committee on temperance of the house met to consider a bill which was introduced by Mr. Gardner, to prohibit the sale of liquor, and no license to the people of Pike. Mr. Murphy was present to oppose the bill, while Gardner favored it, and in the course of his speech referred to the former as "Murphy and his red reflections upon his family."

Mr. Murphy appealed to the chairman for protection in the committee room, saying he could protect himself elsewhere and would hold Gardner responsible. As a result, Mr. Murphy produced Gardner and said: "I'll show you whether I'll hold you responsible," and struck him first on Gardner's jaw. Then the two representatives fought furiously, and quick succession. Gardner staggered and fell heavily. Immediately members of the committee interferred and stopped all further fighting. Great efforts were made to keep the master secret. Both men are now in the hands of their friends, who refuse to talk as to the action taken by the committee.

Senators Name Drinker.

TODD, O., Dec. 23.—W. W. McMeans, an old resident of East Toledo, finished a twenty-four day's spree and a fifty-year life, last night, by drinking a quart of whisky. A post-mortem examination was held, and revealed the fact that the whisky caused a hemorrhage of blood to the brain which suffocated that a drop of blood had turned. It was learned that McCune had drunk a gallon of whisky in two days.

Senatorial Contest in Michigan.

LANSING, Mich., Dec. 23.—In the senatorial contest each candidate is conducting a strenuous campaign. Senator Conger's friends are out in full force, while those of Mr. McMeans, an old resident of East Toledo, finished a twenty-four day's spree and a fifty-year life, last night, by drinking a quart of whisky. A post-mortem examination was held, and revealed the fact that the whisky caused a hemorrhage of blood to the brain which suffocated that a drop of blood had turned. It was learned that McCune had drunk a gallon of whisky in two days.

Putting Wires Under Ground.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 23.—Gen. John A. Logue is still in the front rank of the political leaders of Michigan. He is not able to move at all, and is much troubled by the Woodman hood, started by the State Grange last week. Senator Conger's friends claim large gains through the withdrawal of McMeans. Fitzgerald yesterday engaged all the space apartments in the Lansing hotel.

No Signs of Poison.

CENTRALIA, Ill., Dec. 23.—The coroner's jury in the case of Mrs. Mollie Collins, who was subjected to a severe poison by her husband, a student of the university of Pennsylvania, was drowned while skating on Lake Whitney. His parents live at Springfield, Mo.

TO REMEMBER.

JOHN T. KACKLEY has now a complete spread out for the Holidays, both small and whole.

He invites inspection of special for holiday. Would be glad to see minor friends, and also patrons of my predecessor. Mr. Kackley will continue the photographic business in his spacious gallery, in the same building. Remember the place: Kackley's old stand, 27 East Second street, Maysville.
